

Local Library Extends Weekend Hours

The city library announced today that it will stay open later on weekends starting next month, responding to requests from students and families. The head librarian said the change reflects growing demand for quiet study space. Volunteers will staff the extra hours. Funding comes from a community grant awarded earlier this spring.